

Writing Process: The Strategies That Go With It

| Writing Process Stage | Strategy   | Rationale  |
|-----------------------|--|--|
| Pre-writing           | Writing menus, conversation, visualization                                       | Pick a topic   |
| Writing               | Journaling, free writing, writing folders, think pair share, graphic organizers  | To help student explore purpose, audience, genre and macro-organization of the piece |
| Revising              | Individual conferences, response groups, mini lessons                            | To help student refine the purpose, audience, genre and macro-organization           |
| Editing               |  | Purposeful application of the spelling and grammar conventions                       |
| Publishing            | Author's chair, class anthology, school newsletter or web site, local newsletter | To provide a motive for writing, and celebrate accomplishments                       |
